EX LIBRIS

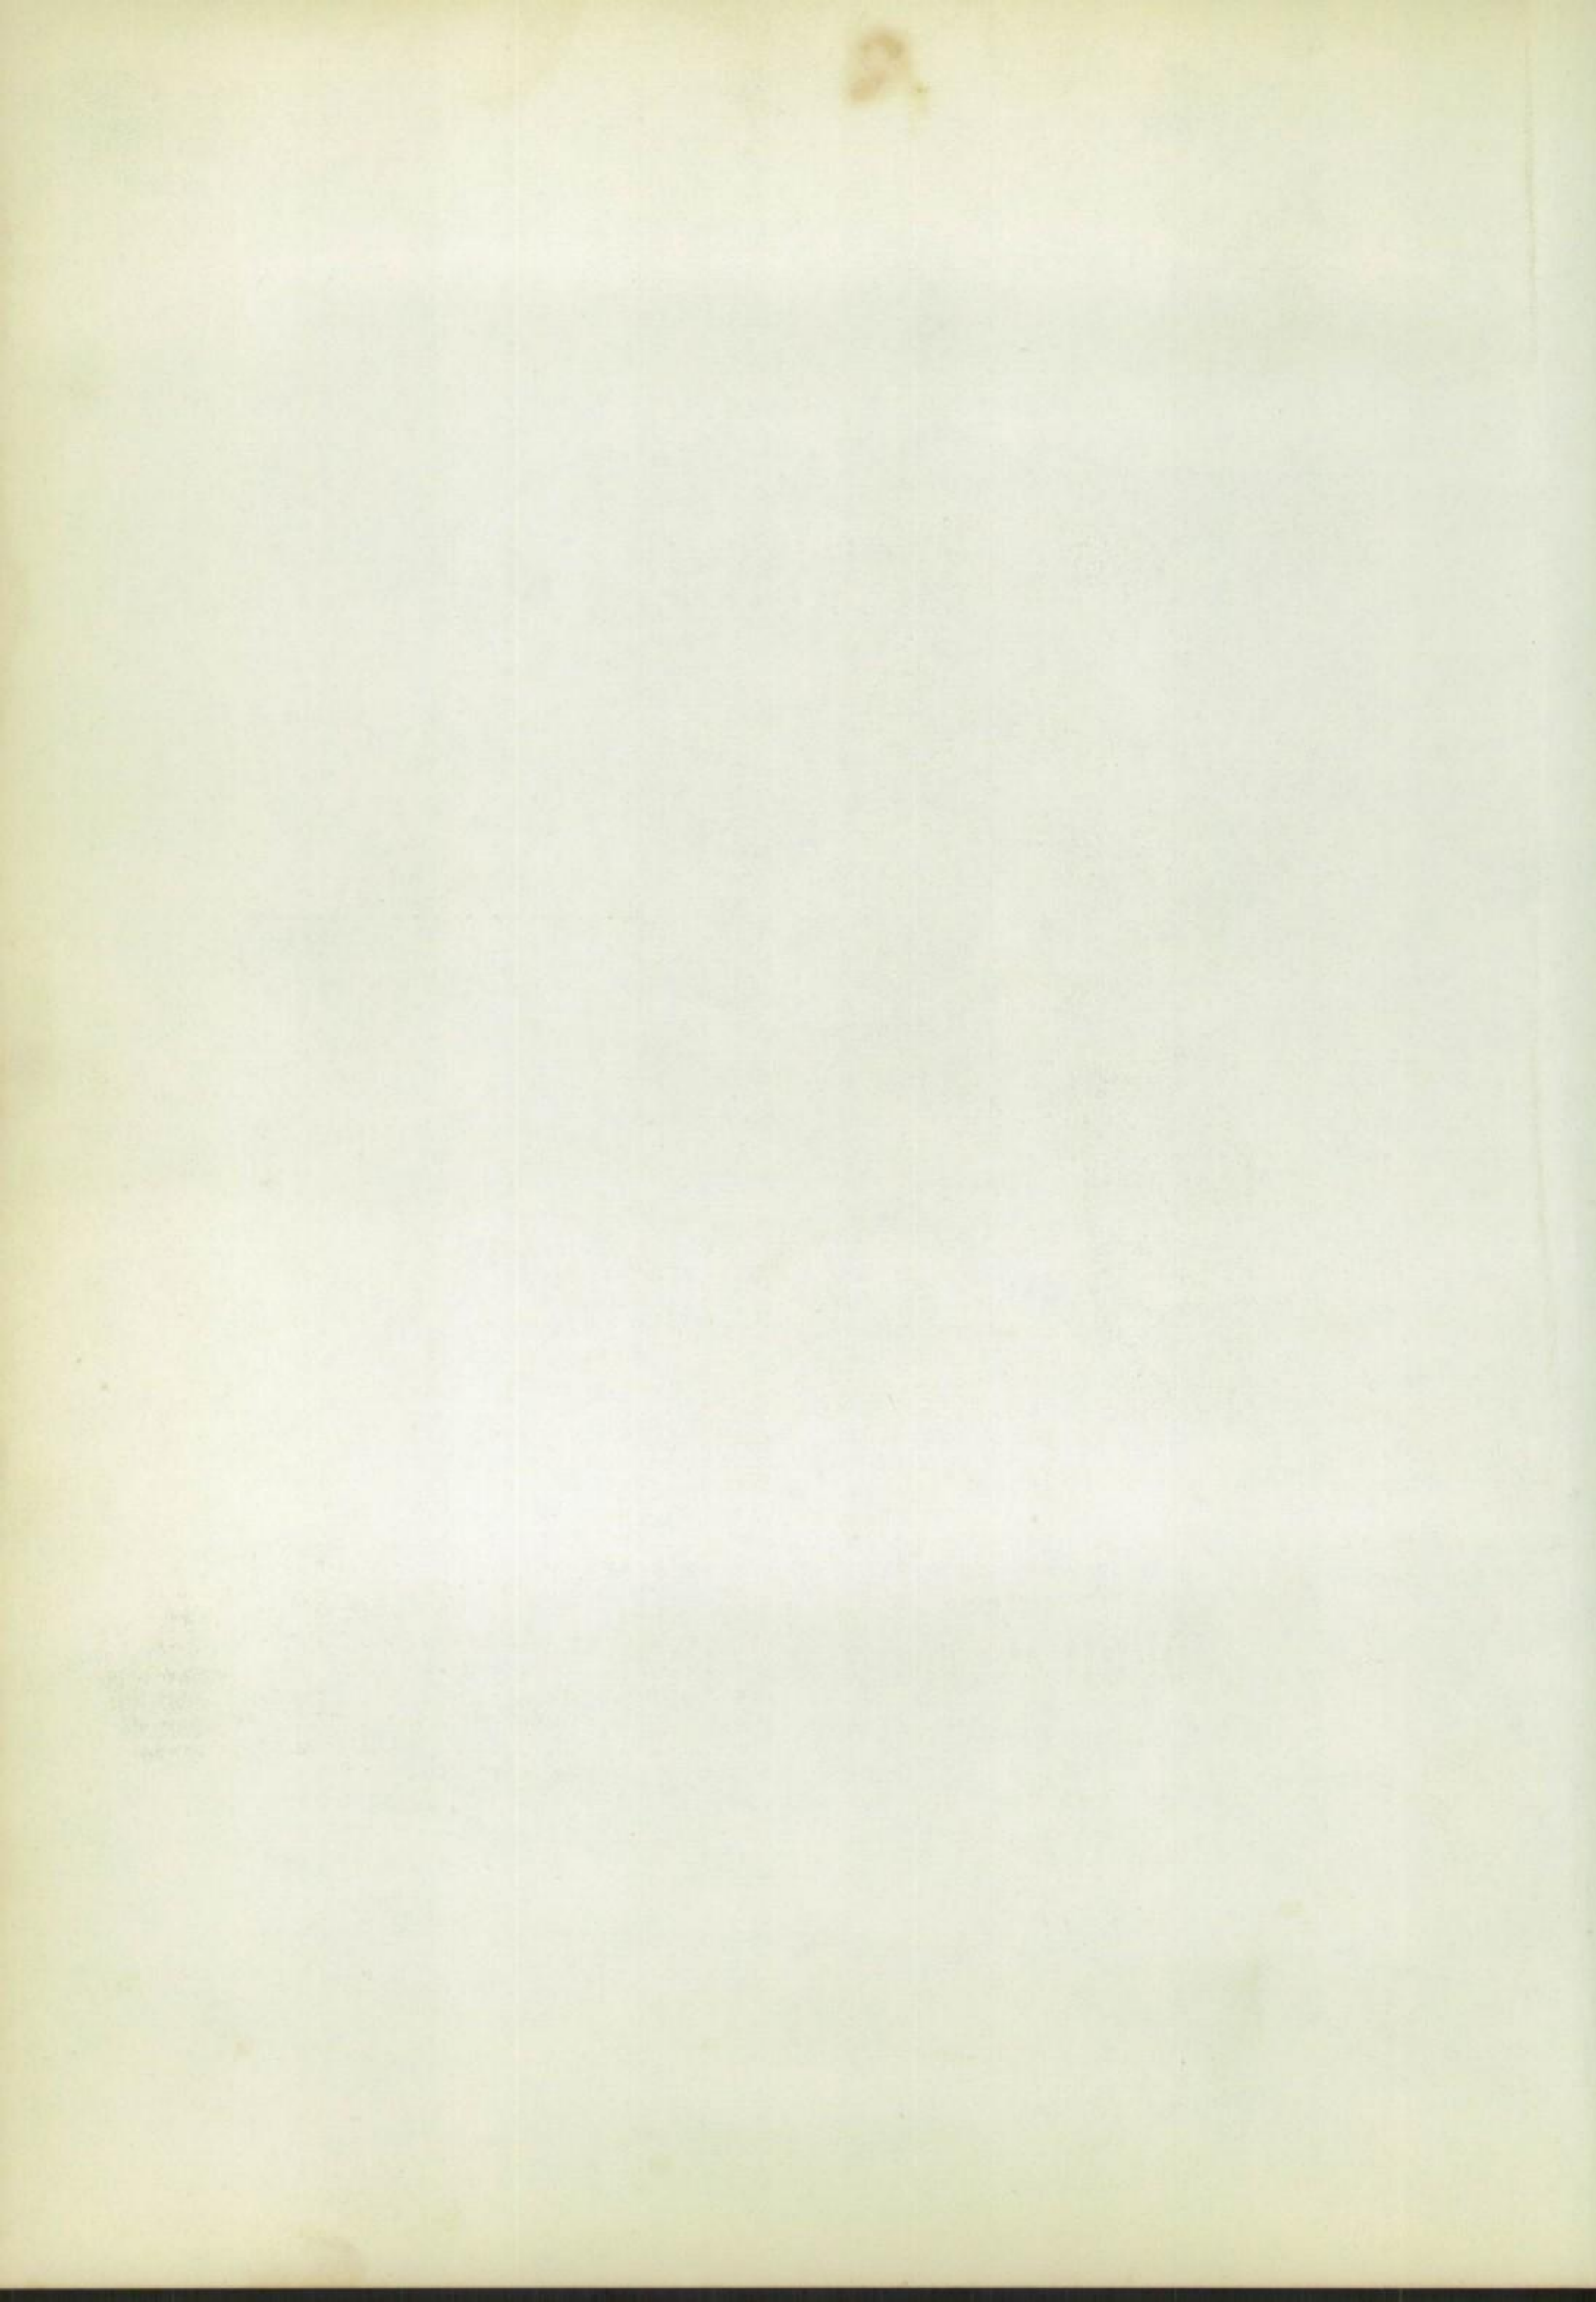

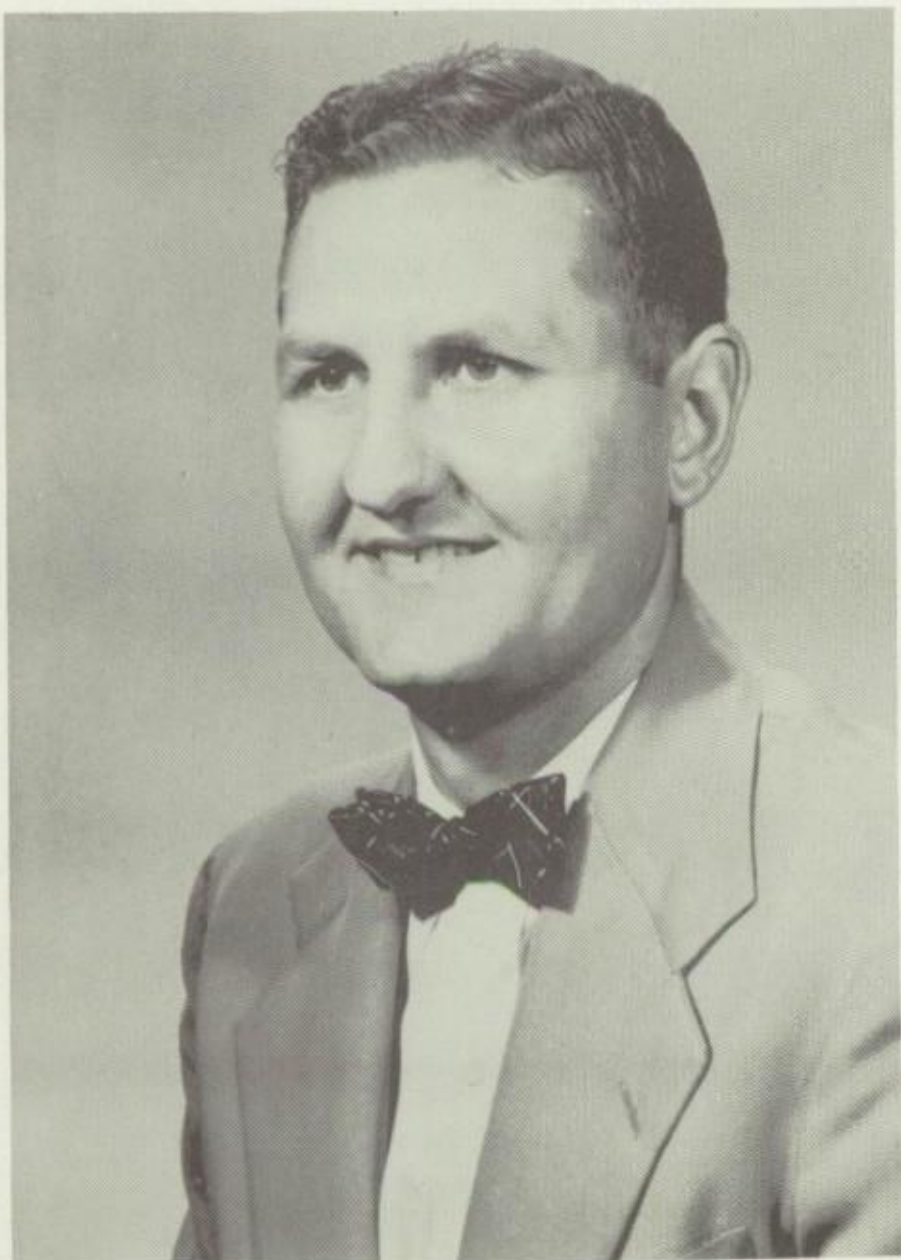

The 1954 "Bulldog" invites you aboard to inspect the Luxury Liner, our Steamship "W.H.S." Let's take a look into the ship's log and see just what has taken place during the year's cruise.

Since launching our craft in Sept., many things have happened aboard our vessel that we never want to forget. Here, in this edition of your Annual, we hope to have captured the outstanding events of this year's voyage.

For Seniors whose 'Journey' is nearing completion, may these last few miles we travel together be logged as an unforgettable experience.

May we all look upon these months of "Seafaring" and Remember our Colors, flying in the breeze aboard the "S.S.W.H.S."

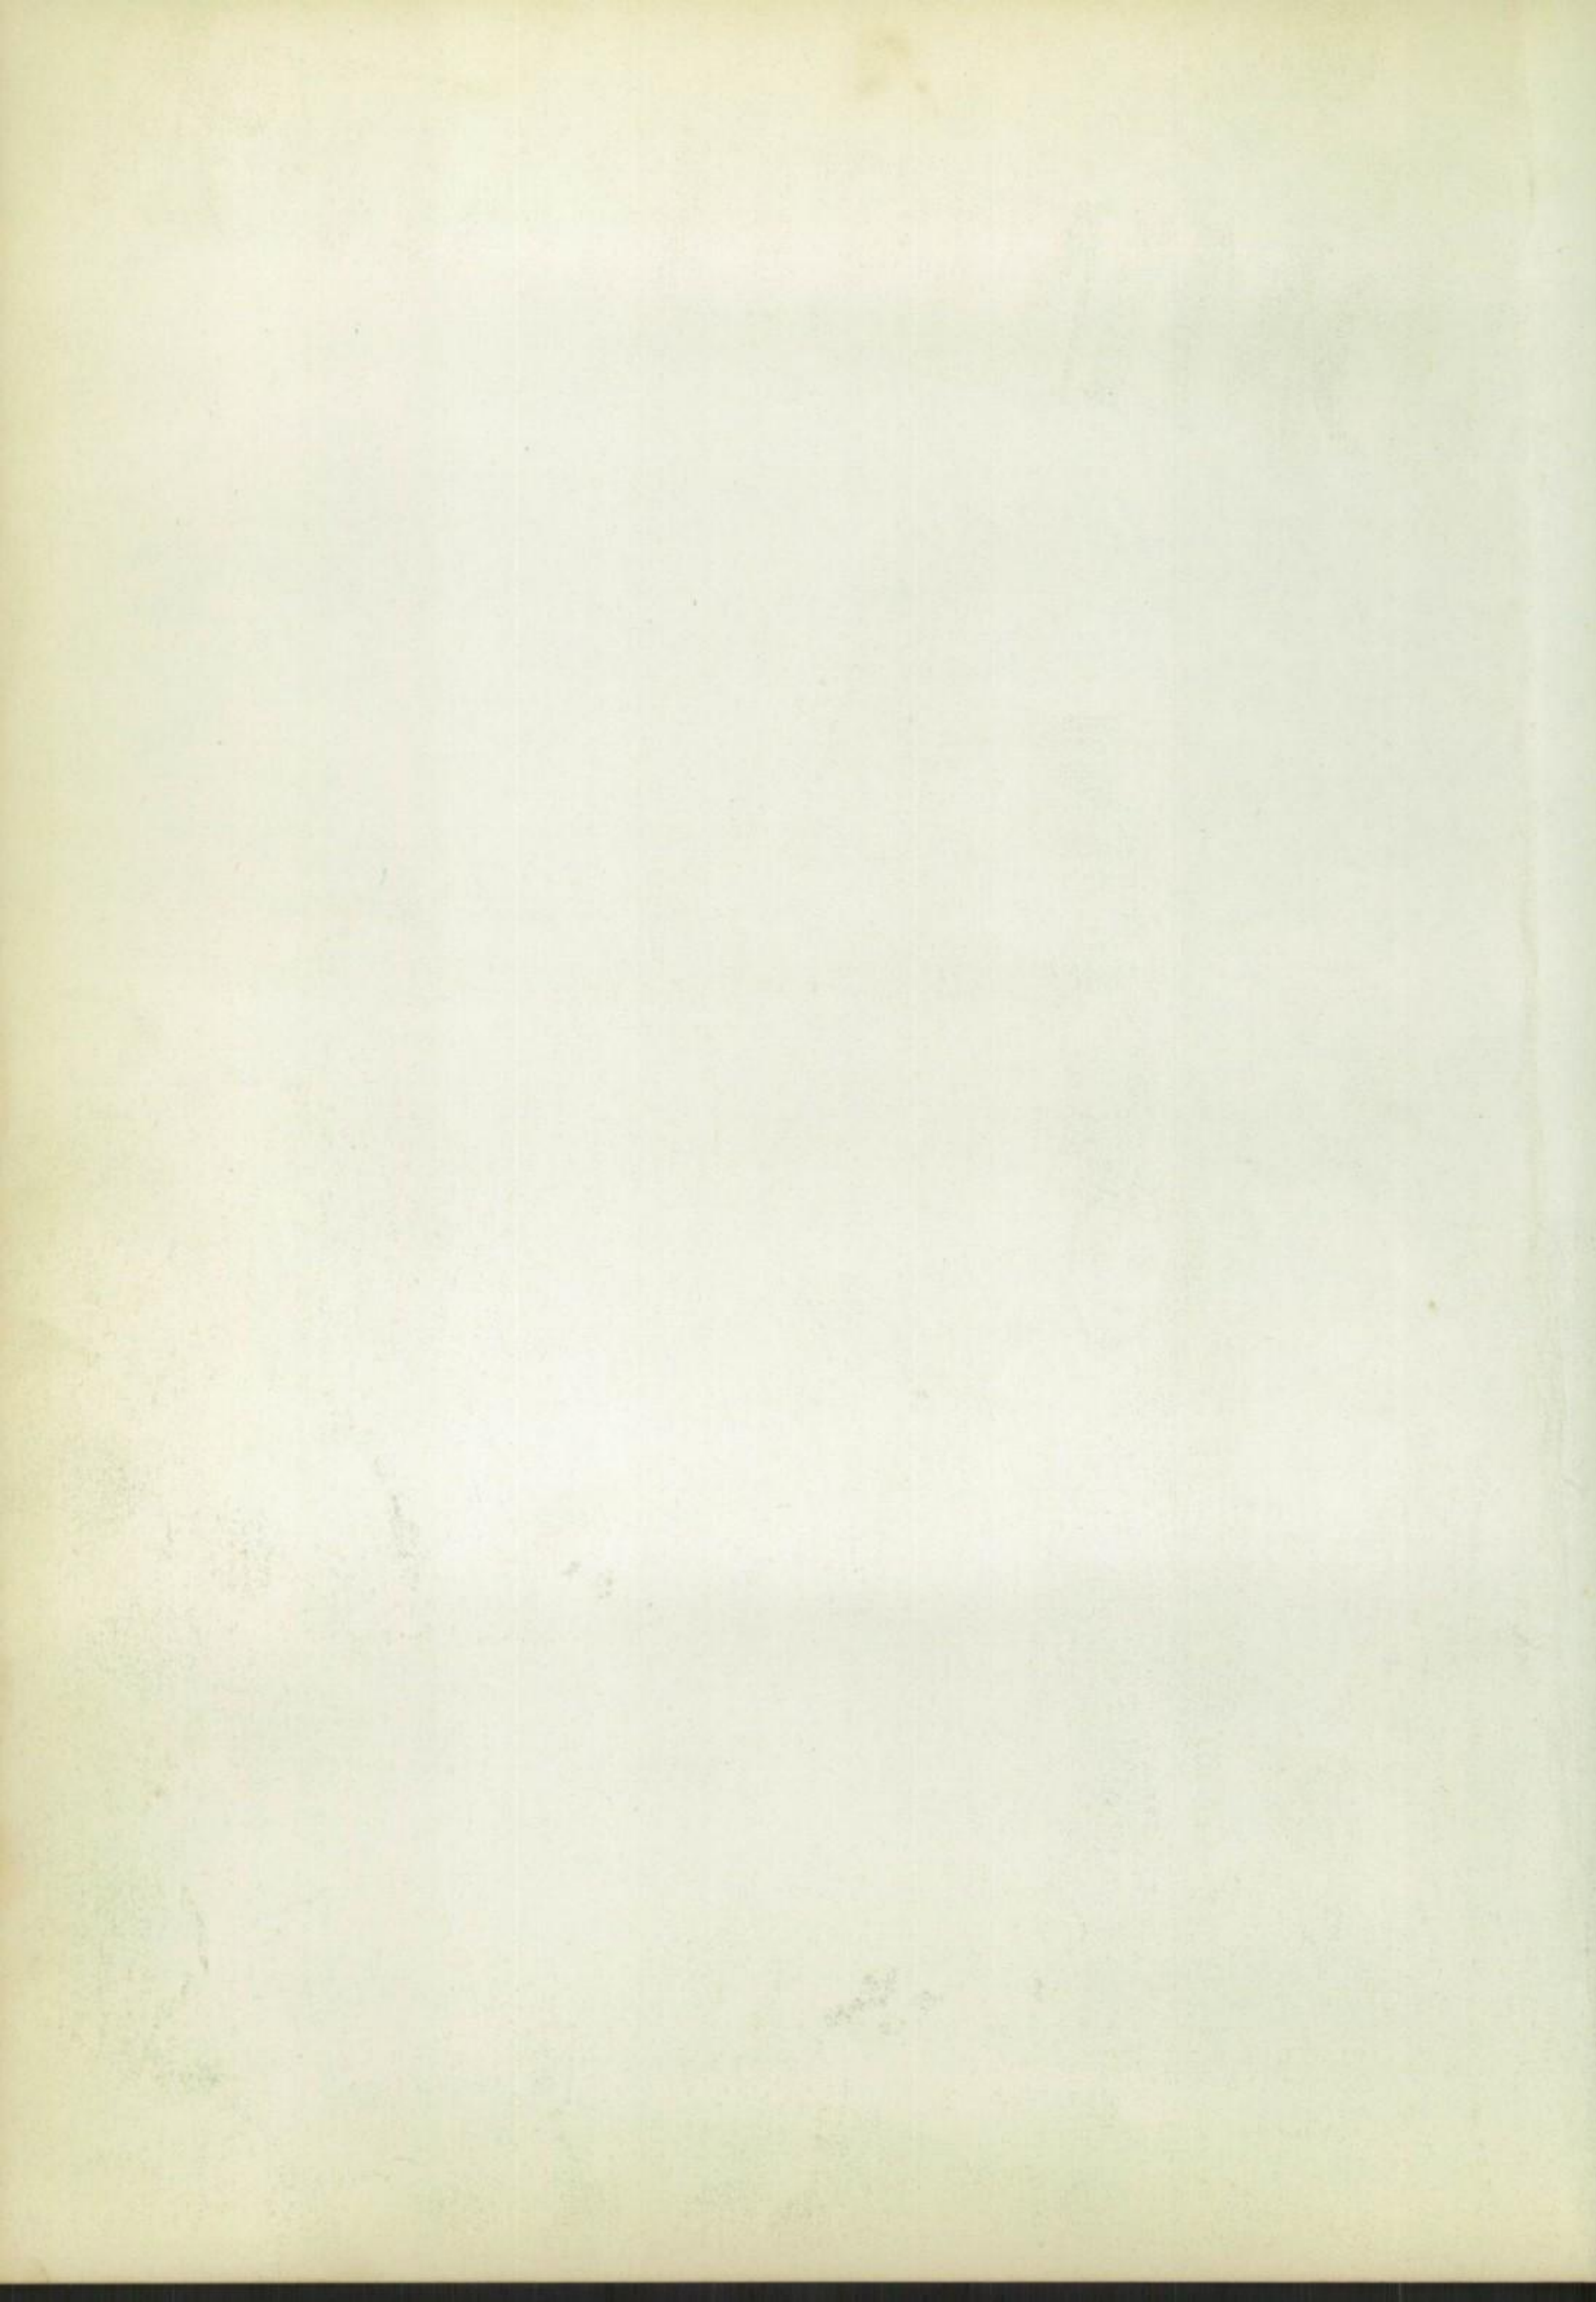

Mr. J.W. Southern

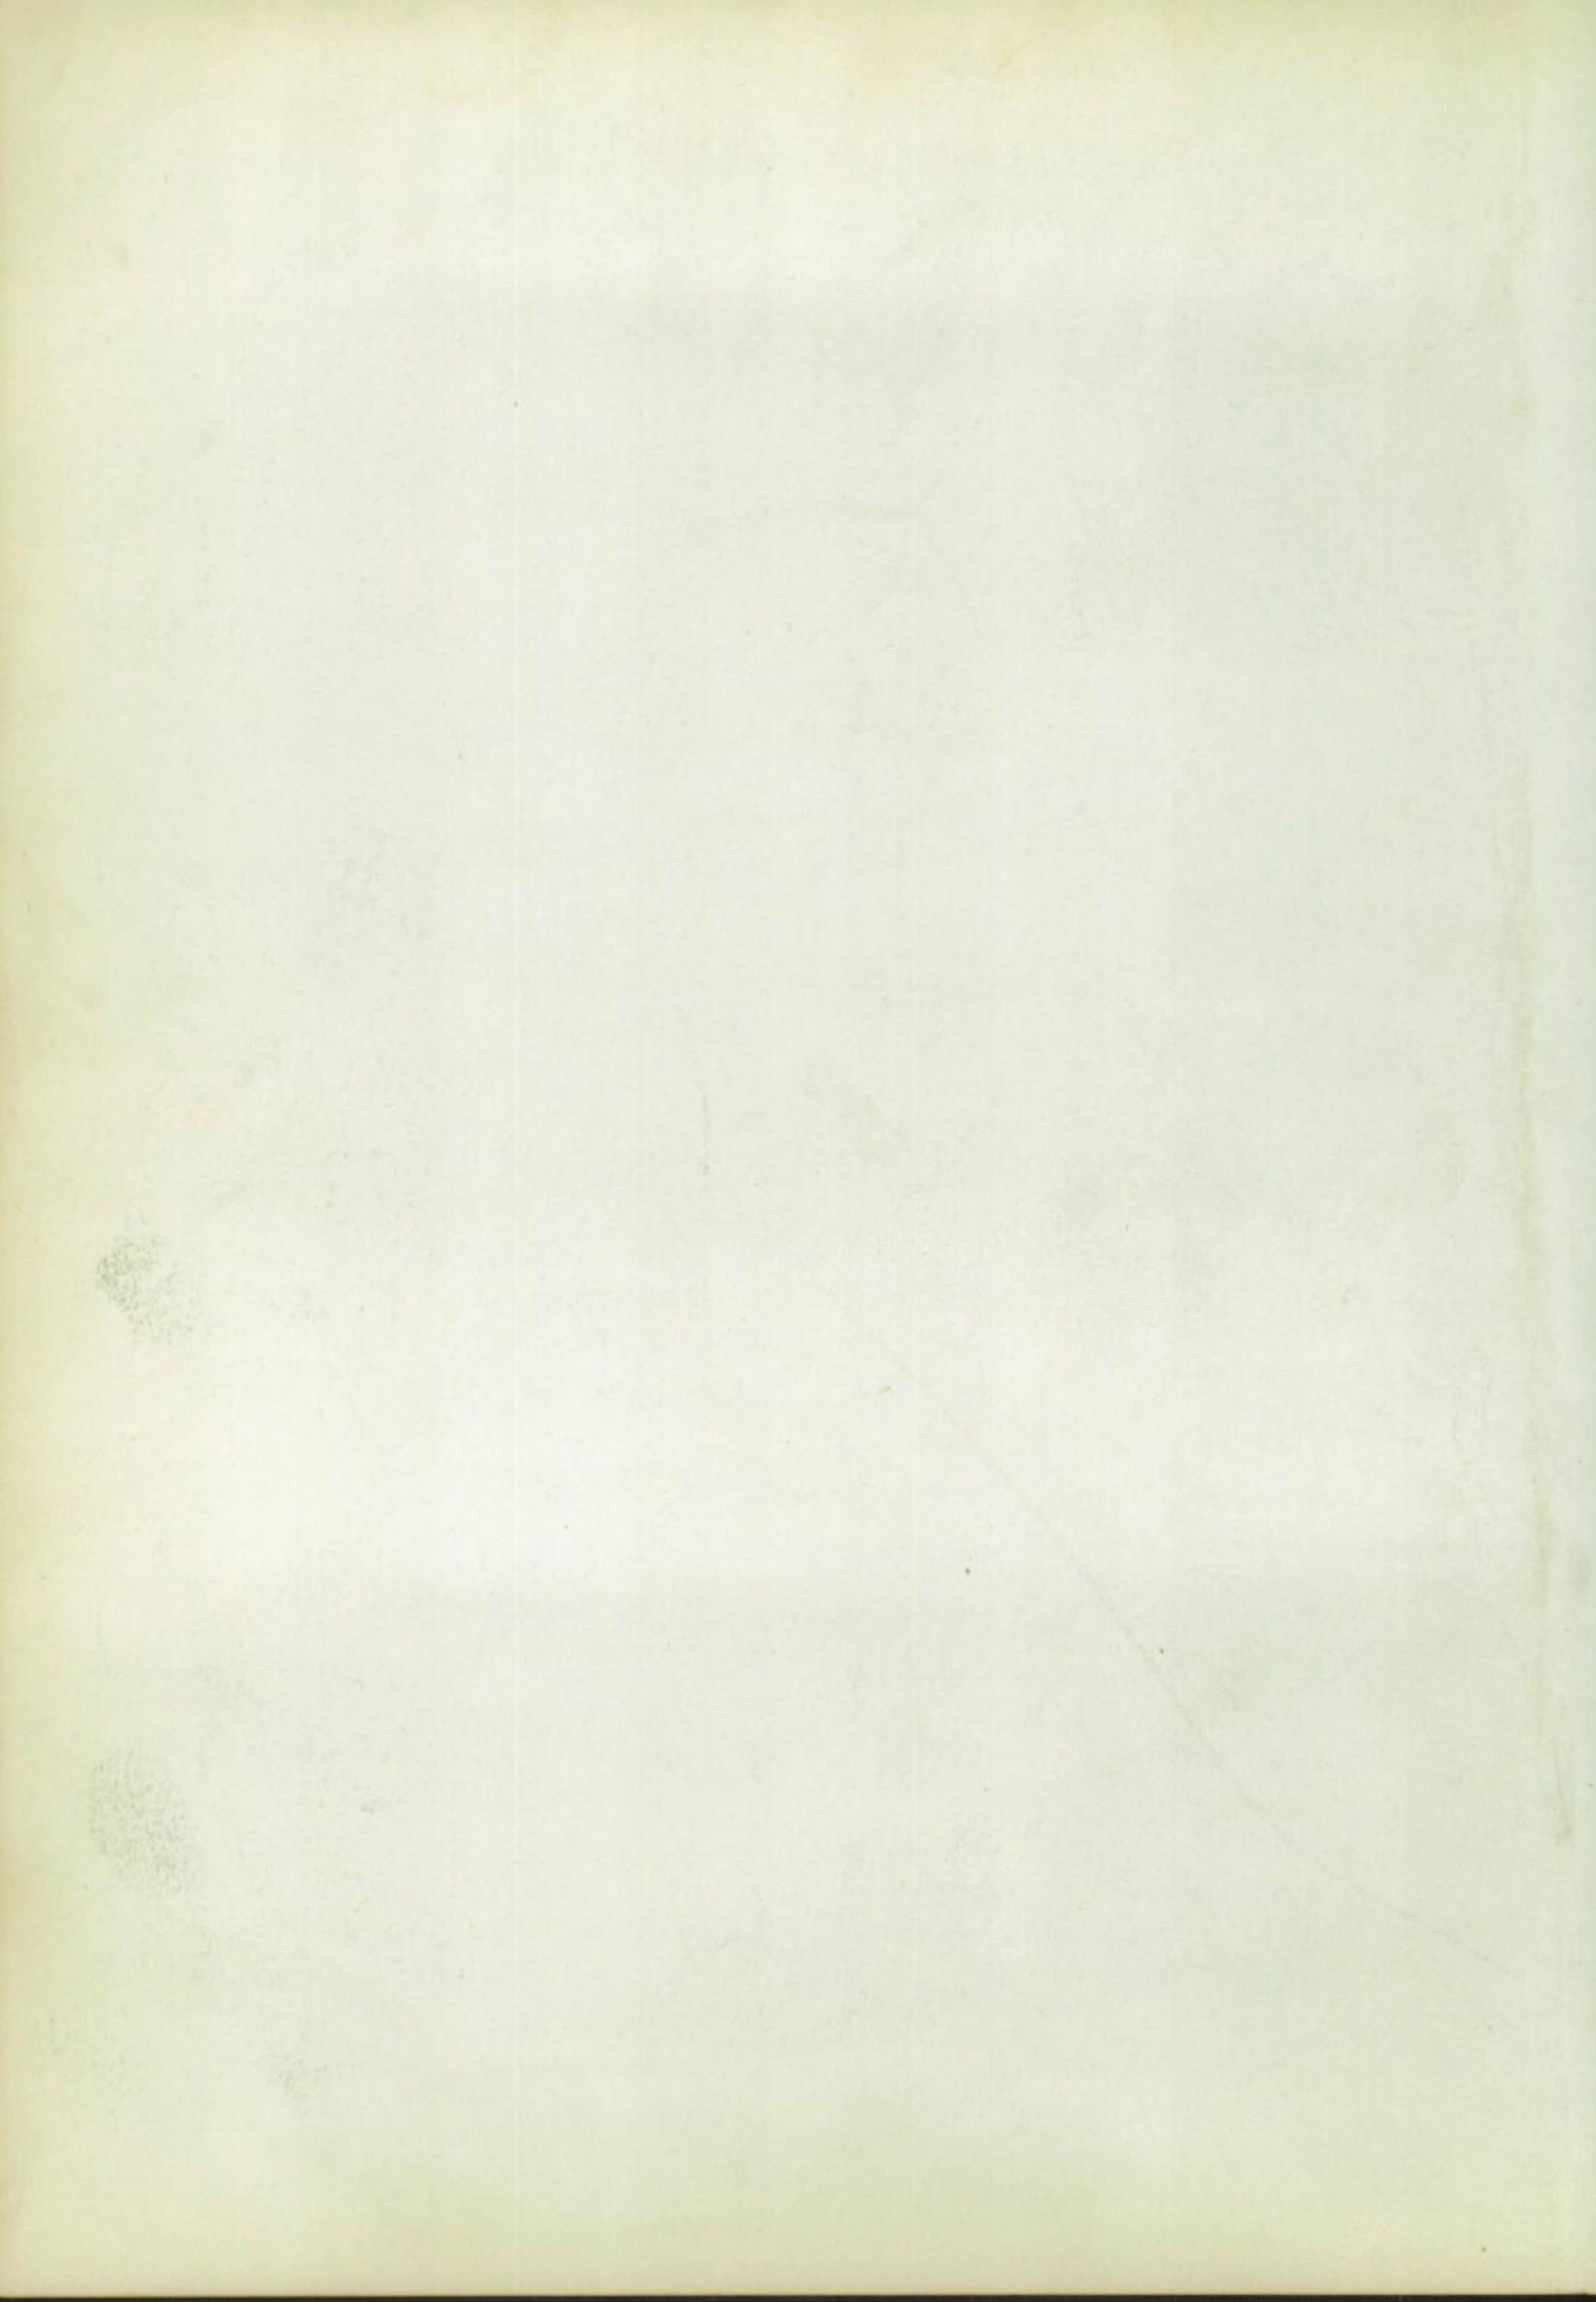

DEDICATION

We, the Senior Class of 1954 dedicate this edition of the annual,
Wahischola to Mr. John Southern.
We recognize his worth as advisor and friend. Coach Southern has served our school for two years as coach. We sincerely hope that this dedication will express our appreciation for his work and effort.

The following officers were elected; President, Dwane Ashcraft Vice President, Shellis Robinson; Sect., James Heldreth Treasure, Jim Ice. We chose the Wild Rose as our flower and our motto was, "Let the Boys take over." Our Colors were green and white and our sponsor was Mrs. Smith

On September 4 we entered our Sophomore year of High School. We started the year off with the enrollment of thirty-one students. During the year we had a decrease of four students. The following officers were elected; President, Janice Underwood; Vice President, Mary Ellen Shrader; Sect., Eleanor Davis; Treasure, Jeanie Ash. Our class cheerleaders were Gene Swiger and Kelly Clayton. Our class flower was the Wild Rose. Our motto, "Let the girls lead and the boys follow." We chose Purple and Orange as our colors. Mr. Squires was our sponsor.

WE entered our Junior year with an enrollment of twenty-six, one boy was missing after the first Semester. Our class officers were; President, Duane Ashcraft; Vice President, Mary Ellen Shrader; Sect., Marilyn Moore Treasure, Jim Ice. Our flower is the "rasberry blossem." "Let the Boys take over," was our motto. We chose Eleanor Davis and Ann Rose Hayhurst for the Cherleaders. We selected "Everybody is getting married," for our Junior Play. We sold magazines, the first of the year to raise money for the Junior-Senior Banquet. At Christmas time our class fixed up a basket of food and gave it to a needy family. Mrs. Smith is our sponsor.

We entered our Senior year with an enrollment of 24, one by was missing after the first six weeks. Our class officers were as follows; President, Jim Heldreth; Vice-Pres-Blenna Pigott; Secretary-Jeanie Ash, Treasure, Jim Ice; Our clors are pastil shades, our flower-Yellow Forsythia, our bird-mocking bird, "The Ropes of the past ring the bells of the future," was our motto.

We selected our play. It is "Stars in Their Eyes" It will be presented April 2, 1954. We are looking forward to the Junior-Senior Banquet and graduation.

Class Will

We the graduating class of 1954 of Wallace High School, town of Wallace, district of Sardis, county of Harrison, state of West Virginia, a small percentage of us being sound of mind, and all of us being free of all body infirmities and in a care free mood, do declare this our last will and testament to be in form and manner as follows:

To the entire school we Seniors will our ability to always be happy, whatever we do, or wherever we are.

To the teachers, we will our books, and remember; "Give To the World the Best That You Have, and the Best Will Come Back To You."

To the Junior Class we will our ability to become great Shakespearian actors and actersses.

To the Sophomore Class we will our ability to pass all of our tests and still miss lots of school.

To the Freshmen Class we will our ability to get out of here soon, raise large families and above all, work as little as possible.

To the seventh and eighth grades we will you our places in the office, but think first before you talk back.

I, Richard Hurst, will to Sonny Cumberledge my ability to play basketball.

I, Bob Rogers, will to Carl Clayton my ability to tease the girls and make them like it.

I, Allen Fleming, will to Cecil Burdine my ability to be a comedian and keep everyone entertained.

I, George Shaw, will to Ronnie Shriver my ability to stay away from the "girls."

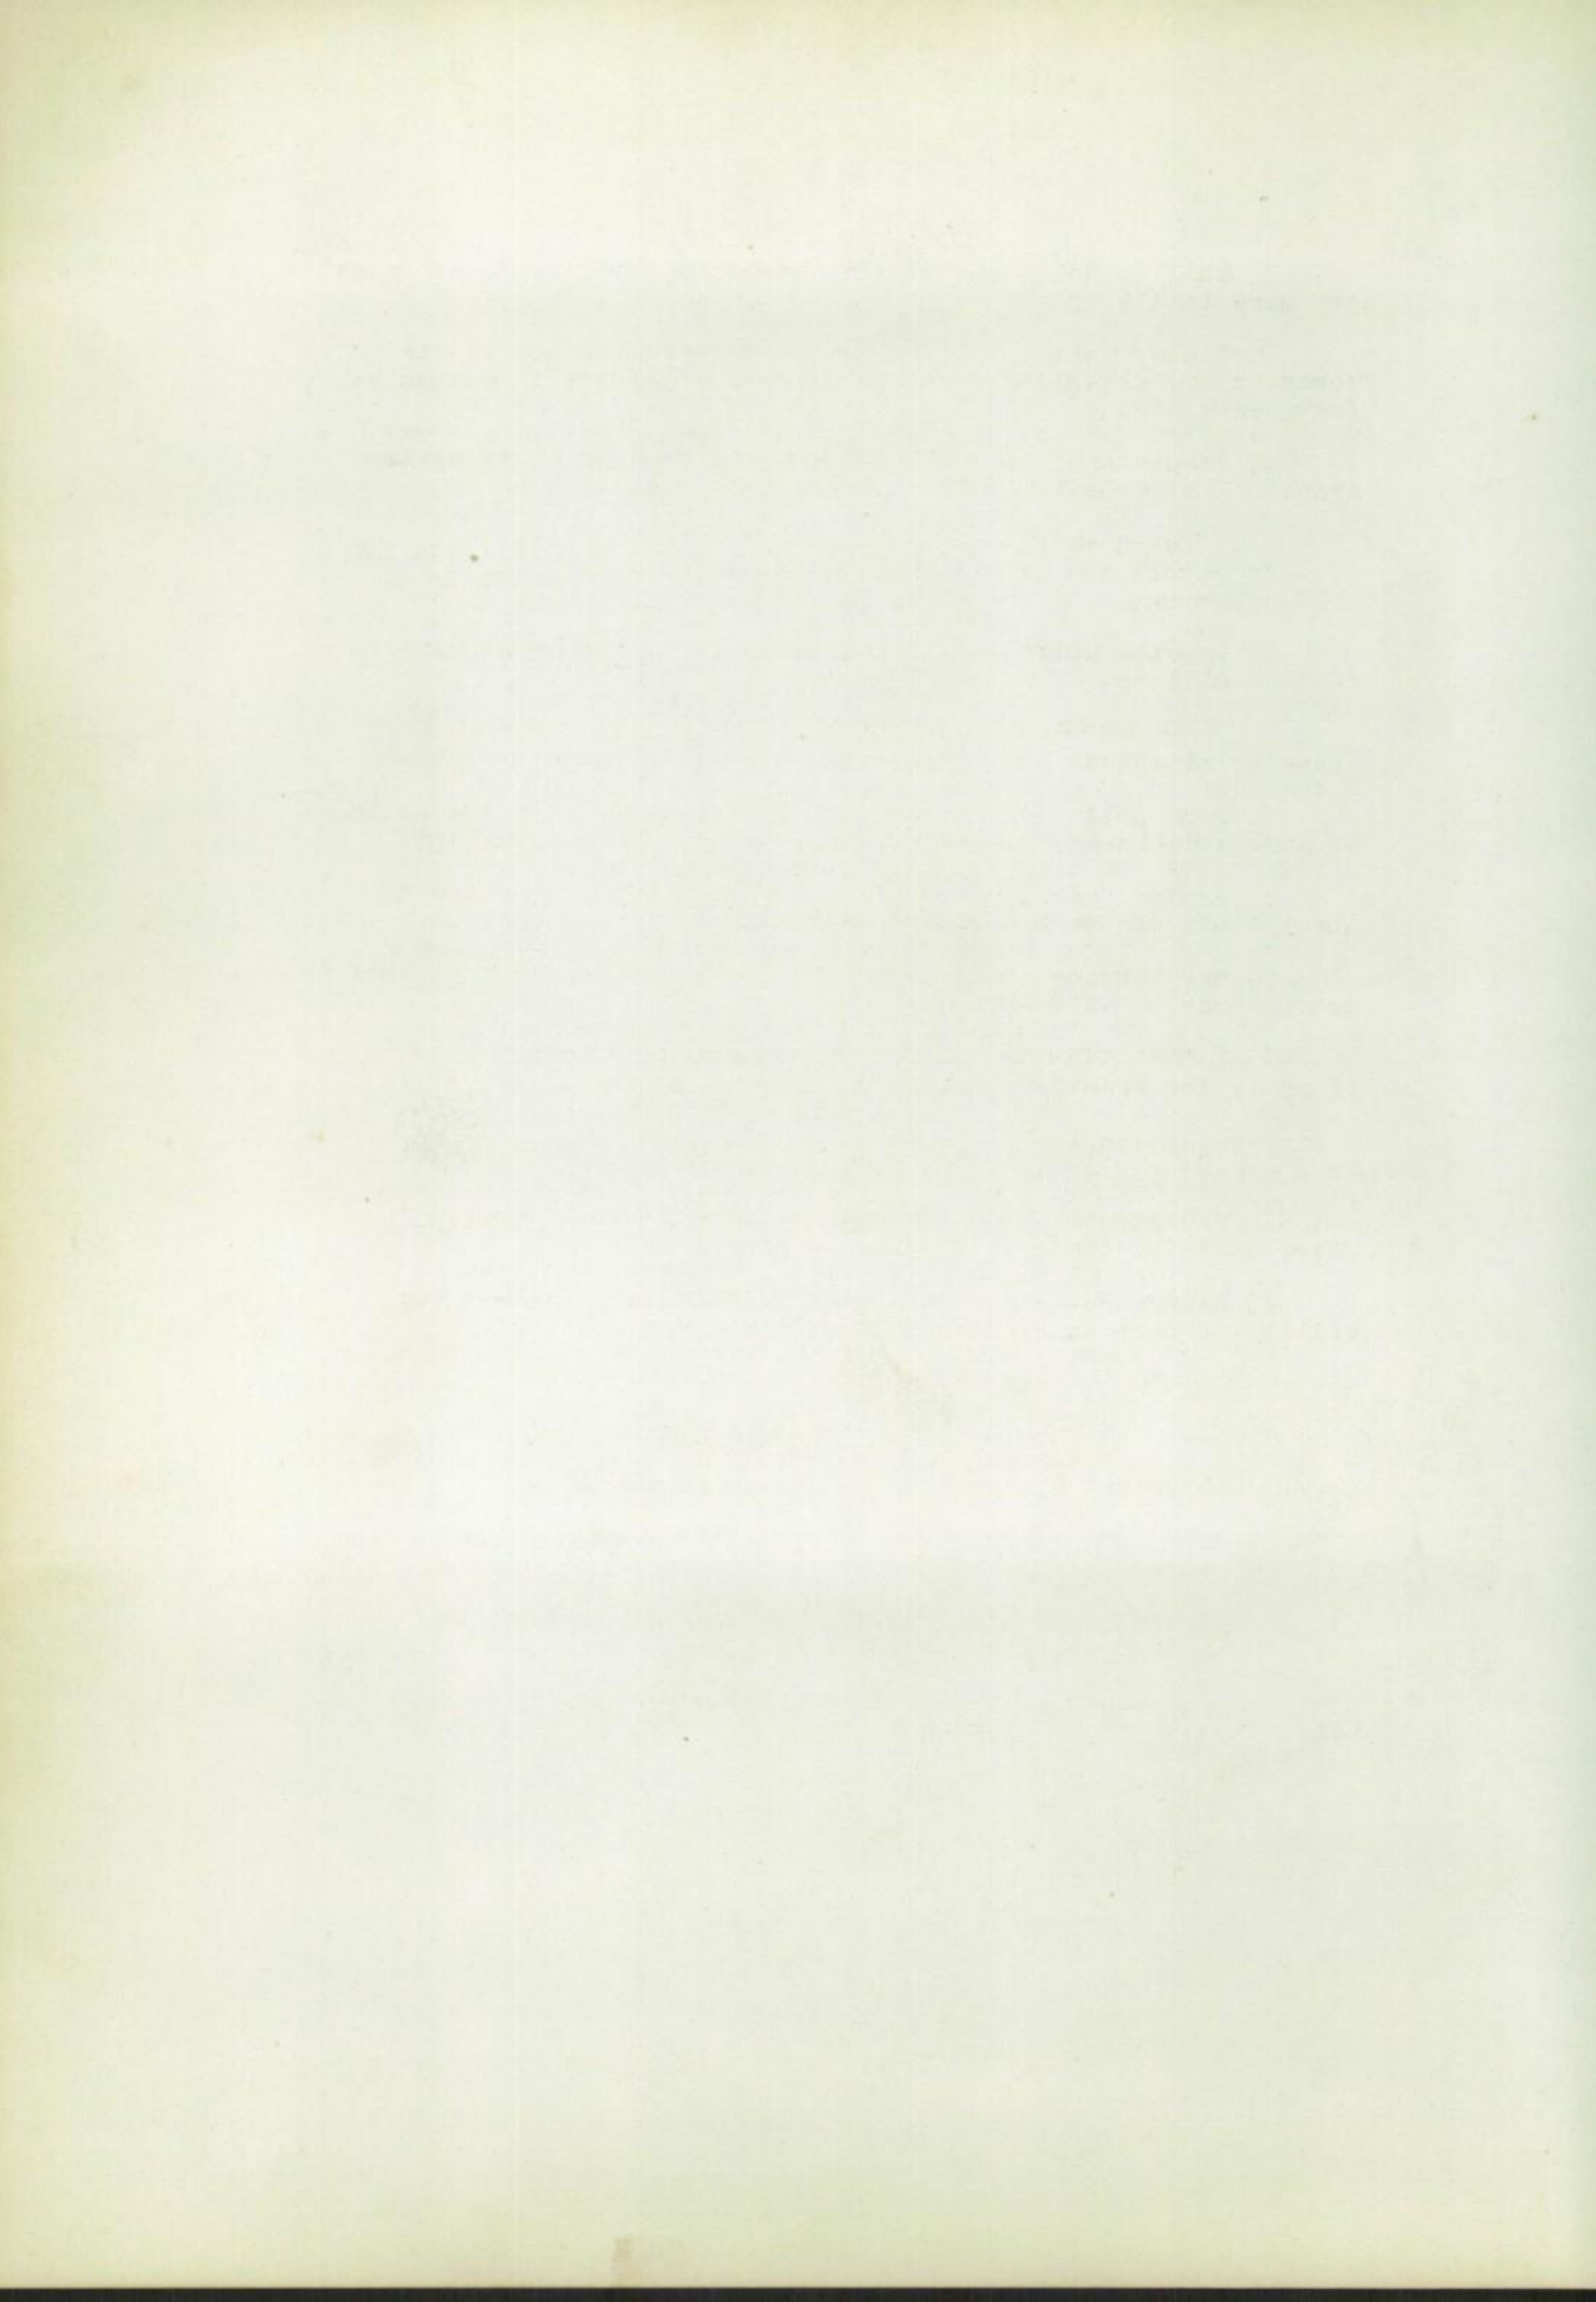

We, Jim Heldreth and Duane Ashcraft, will to the young democrats in the Junior Class our ability to uphold our party in all poligtical discussions in Civics Class.

I, Belva Jo Coburn, will my seat on the school bus to someone who gets tired of hanging on the edge.

I, Mildred Carpenter, will to my brother Freddie, my ability to pass all his subjects, especially Typing and Chemistry.

I, Ealeanor Davis, will to my brother Bill, The whole school house and all teachers, so he can visit only when he wants to.

I, Anna Shriver, will to Pug Ashcraft, my place at the candy counter.

I, Shellis Robinson, will to Warren my ability to at least try hard in all sports.

I, Glenda Smith, will to Ramona Bramer my share of the jokes in the magazines from the library. May she find them as funny as I did.

I, Jeanie Ash, will by cheerleading ability to my sister Agnes. She seems to bounce around quite a bit.

I, Dearl Mayfield, will to Carl Clayton, my ability to skip school and not have more than three flat tires in Clarksburg,

I, Zeretha Wolfe, will to Anna Wolfe all of my excuses to go home at 1:45.

I, Joan Ogden, will to my sister Barbara, my ability to erase my mistakes in typing without getting caught.

I, John Holt, will my ability to get along with the coach to Warren Robinson, may he make out as well as Shellis did.

I, Janice Underwood will to Shirley McKenna my share of the ink off of the mimeograph machine.

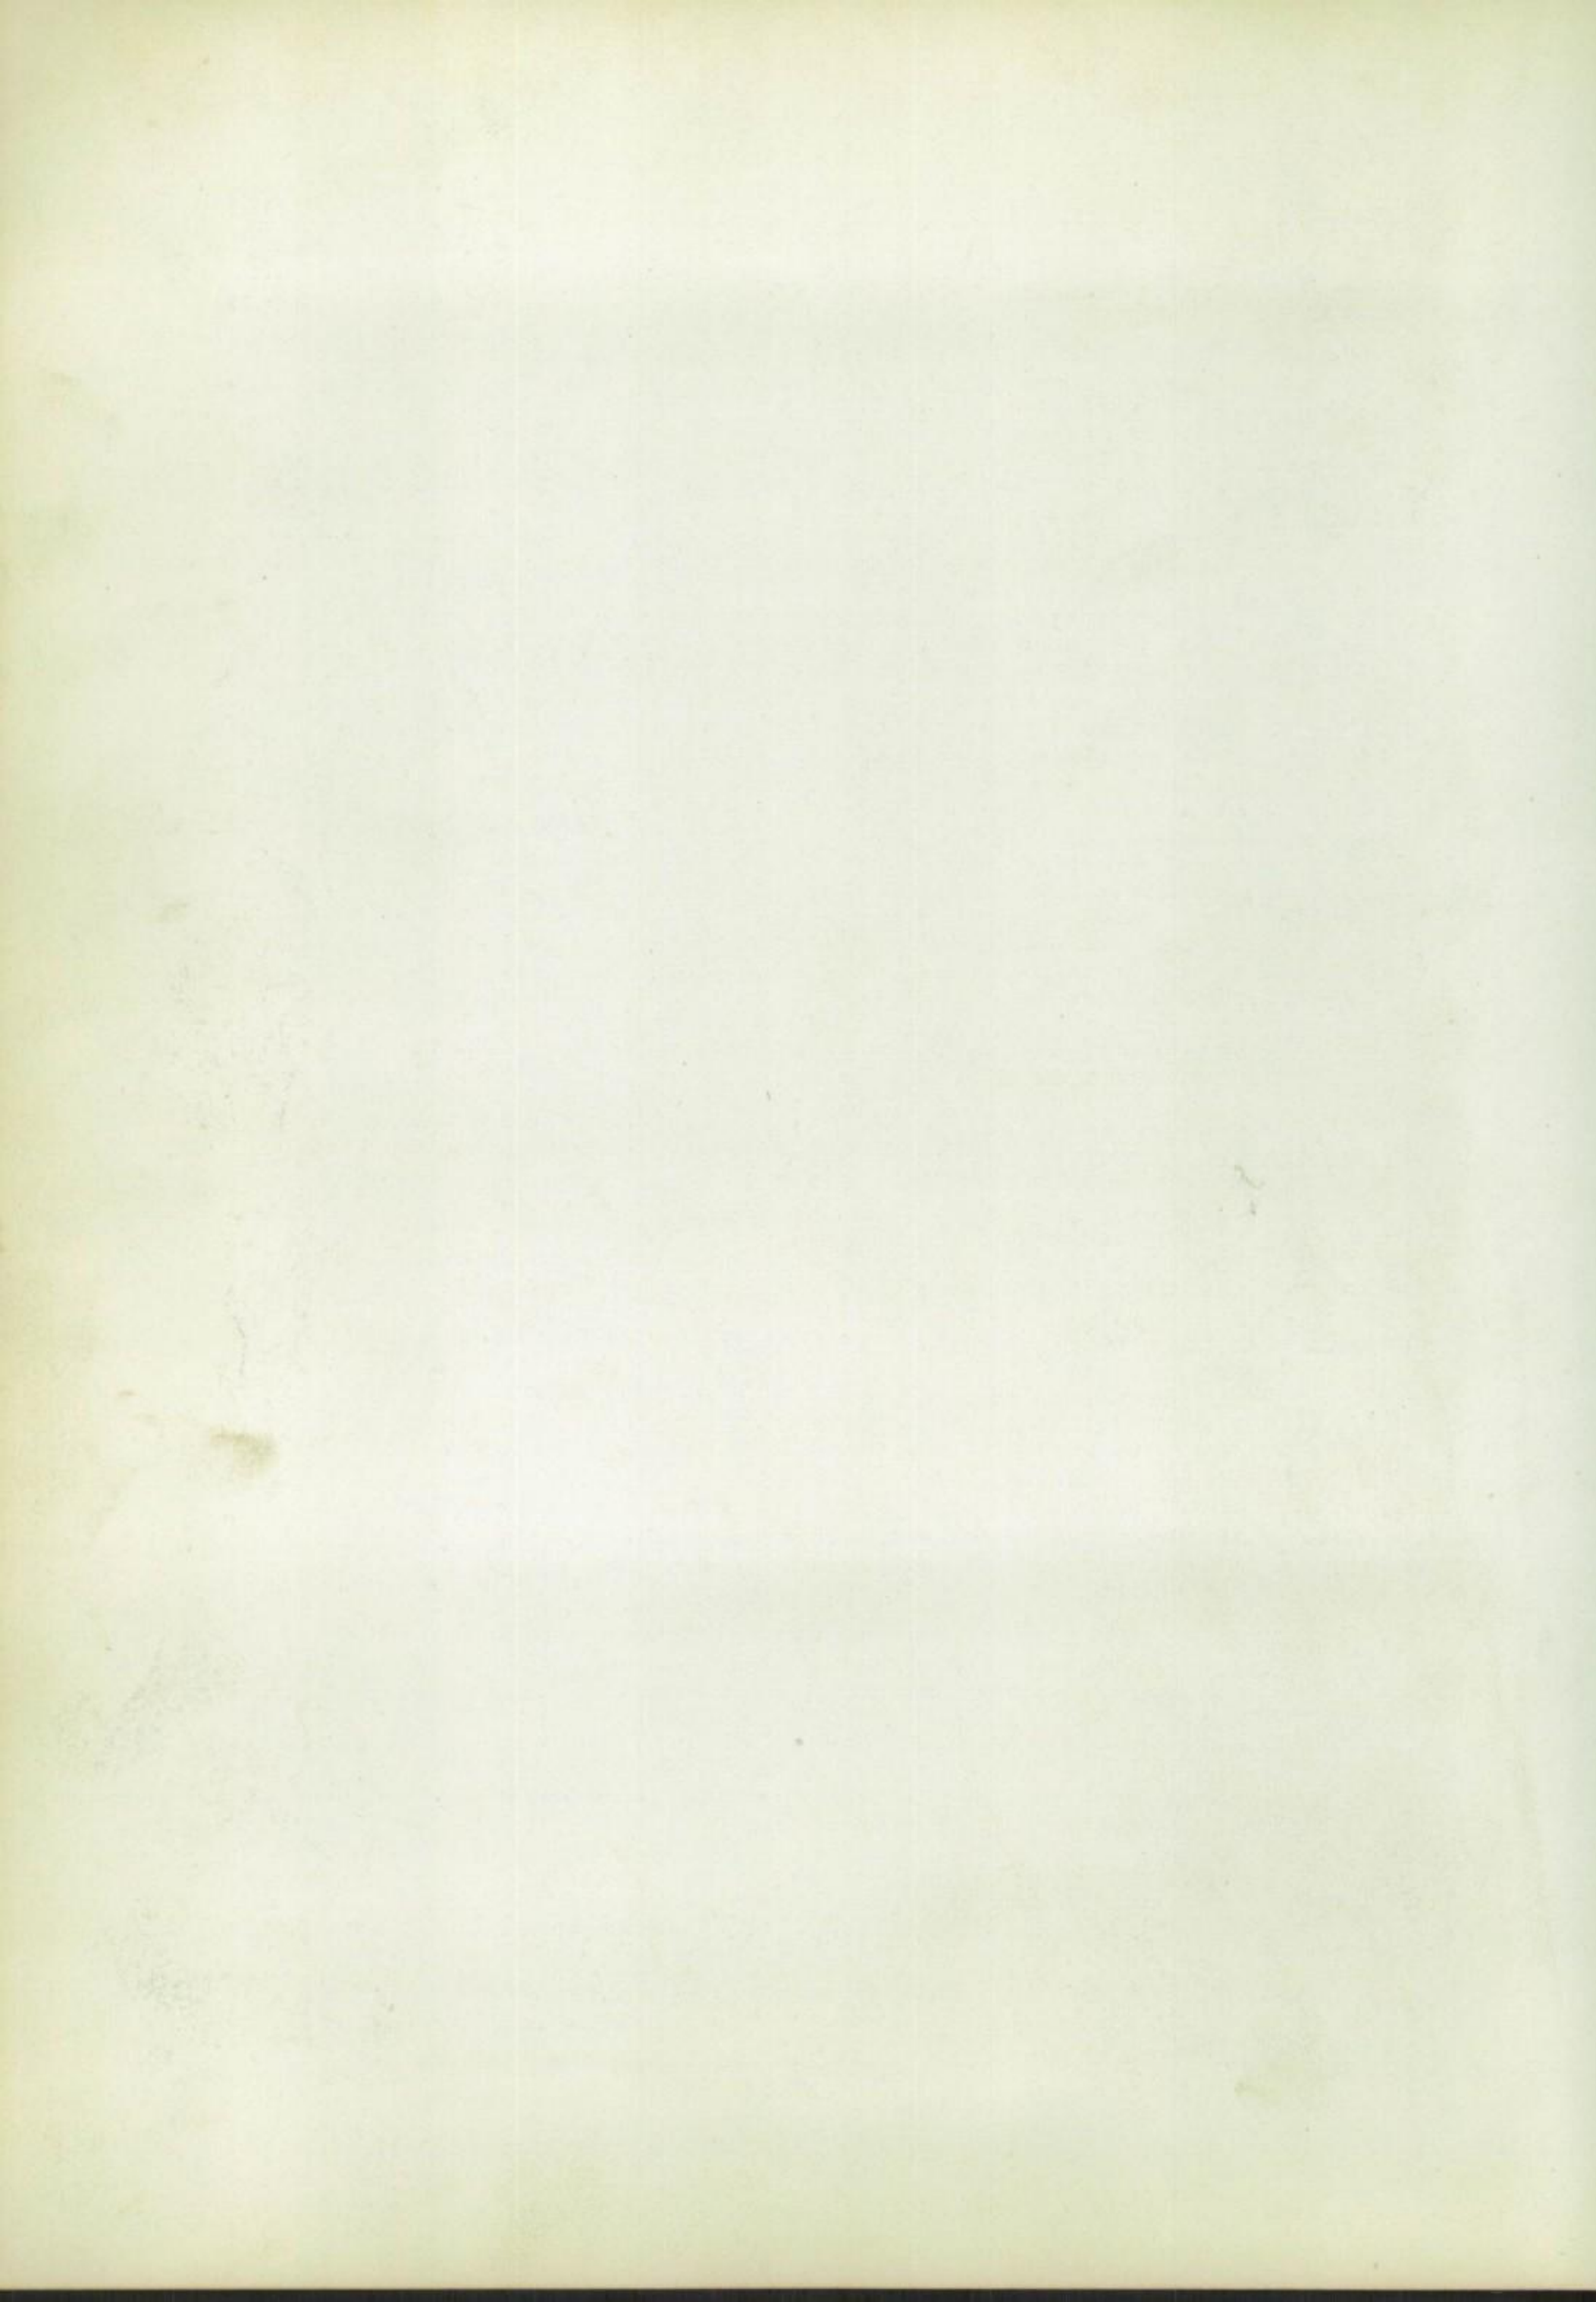

I, Mary Shrader will nothing to nobody, because I haven't got anybody to will anything to.

I, Glenna Pigott, will to my sister Aritha, what's left of my typing eraser. That is if there's anything left of it.

I, Raymond Bragg, will to Carl Clayton, my ability to get punished for other peoples crimes by Mr. Squires.

I, Jim Ice, will my ability to drive a car to Sheila. Drive carefully the life you save might be mine.

I, George Robert Swiger, will to Elizabeth Lambert, my ability to keep an argument going in a class meeting.

In 1973, we jumped into our old Ford to visit the Wallace graduates of '54. We became low on gas and so we stopped at a filling-station and to our awful surprize we found George Robert and Shellis working there. Shellis said he finally got hitched to Eleanor Davis and they had a family. We had to be getting along because we had to find a hotel to sleep in. We saw the sign of a hotel and it read: "Glenda Smith's Hotel", a place where we could at least get some sleep. As we approached the desk we found Belva Colburn as the hotel clerk. The next day we were driving through the country and we came to a herd of cattle; as we slowed down to pass we saw Raymond Bragg milking an old cow in the middle of the herd. Driving on, we soon arrived at the home of Ball State Teachers College in Muncie. We stopped to get direction and we found Duane Ashcraft and Jim Heldreth still trying to get their diploma's at the college. We heard that Mary Ellen Shrader was directing a "mens glee club", at the college too. At least there would be glee if not a club. As we chugged along toward our destination we came to a railroad track and we saw Jim Ice, a hobo, jumping off a passing train. As we entered Clarksburg we read a sign saying, "Anna Hayhurst's Beauty Shop", poodle cuts our specialty. Across the street from the shop was Mildred Carpenters nursery where she cares for her ancestry. On down the street we came to a halt and entered a law office. We was much surprised to find that the blonde, private secretary was none other that Janice Underwood. Out on the street again we were overwhelmed by the passing of a sleek, blue Cadillac convertible; And who was in it but Joan and Dearl and little Dearl Jr. Approaching the residential section we all noticed a neat little bungalow with "Jack Wolfe" written on the name plate. Of course we knew that Zeretha was residing there also. Going on we noticed a circus which was in progress and the first tent was the "Fat Man's"; upon walking inside we discovered to our utter suprise Allen Fleming said to weigh about 700 lbs. As we were walking on down the mid-way we heard a man shouting, "Come see the bearded ladie who sings and dances." As we came closer we discovered John Holt was doing the shouting. We bought tickets and went inside. We saw the fat woman singing and dancing which incidentally was Jeanie. Suddenly someone gave a shrill scream and we looked into the bearded face of Glenna Pigott, who had lost her beard. We left the circus and stopped in at "Bob's Greasy Spoon" where we found George Shaw as the chef and Richard Hurst as the sole waiter. From there we started on our homeward journey and were very surprised to find how the '54 Seniors had succeeded.

A thought for to day, this being Christmas day, 1953
Hay I'm going your way, so let us go hand in hand, You Help me
And I'll help you, We shall not be here very long, for soon death, the kind old nurse, will come back and rock us all to sleep, let us help one another while on our way.
Signed your neighbor.
